Senate Bill 362 (Senator Attar)
Judicial Proceedings

Criminal Law - Child's Access to Firearms - Penalty (Ny'Kala Strawder Act)

This bill establishes an incarceration penalty for a person storing or leaving a loaded firearm in a location where the person knew or should have known that an unsupervised minor has access to the firearm. The bill alters the penalty from a maximum fine of $1,000 to imprisonment for up to five years and/or a maximum fine of $1,000.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Potential minimal increase in general fund incarceration expenditures due to the bill's alteration of penalty provisions. Otherwise, the bill is not expected to materially affect State finances or operations.

Local Effect: Potential minimal increase in local revenues and expenditures due to the bill's alteration of penalty provisions.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law:

Access to a Firearm by a Minor

A person may not store or leave a loaded firearm in a location where the person knew or should have known that an unsupervised minor has access to the firearm. A violator is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a maximum fine of $1,000.

The prohibition does not apply if:

- the minor's access to a firearm is supervised by an individual at least 18 years old;
- the minor's access to a firearm was obtained as a result of an unlawful entry;
- the firearm is in the possession or control of a law enforcement officer while the officer is engaged in official duties; or
- the minor has a certificate of firearm and hunter safety issued under applicable provisions of the Natural Resources Article.

A violation may not (1) be considered evidence of negligence; (2) be considered evidence of contributory negligence; (3) limit liability of a party or an insurer; or (4) diminish recovery for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or operation of a firearm or ammunition. A party, witness, or lawyer may not refer to a violation during a trial of a civil action that involves property damage, personal injury, or death.

Prohibition on Possession – Regulated Firearms

A person may not possess a regulated firearm if the person (1) has been convicted on or after October 1, 2023, of a second or subsequent violation of § 4-104 of the Criminal Law Article (access to a firearm by a minor) or (2) has been convicted on or after October 1, 2023, of a violation of § 4-104 if the violation resulted in the use of a loaded firearm by a minor causing death or serious bodily injury to the minor or another person. In addition, a person who has been convicted on or after October 1, 2023, of a violation of § 4-104 may not possess a regulated firearm for five years following the date of the conviction.

Permit to Wear, Carry, or Transport a Handgun

The Secretary of State Police may not issue a permit to wear, carry, or transport a handgun to a person if the person (1) has been convicted on or after October 1, 2023, of a second or subsequent violation of § 4-104 of the Criminal Law Article (access to a firearm by a minor) or (2) has been convicted on or after October 1, 2023, of a violation of § 4-104 if the violation resulted in the use of a loaded firearm by a minor causing death or serious bodily injury to the minor or another person. In addition, the Secretary may not issue a permit to a person who has been convicted on or after October 1, 2023, of a violation of § 4-104 for five years following the date of the conviction.

Youth Suicide Prevention and Firearm Safe Storage Guide

Chapter 622 of 2023 required the Deputy Secretary for Public Health Services to develop a youth suicide prevention and firearm safe storage guide. The Maryland Department of Health (MDH) must post the guide on its website and make an electronic version of the guide available to families, health and social services providers, and other interested entities, as specified. MDH must provide grants to local school systems, local health departments, and nonprofit agencies to support the education of families on the safe storage practices recommended in the guide.

Additional Comments: According to the Judiciary, there were 51 filings and one conviction in the District Court and 39 filings and two convictions in the circuit courts for violations of § 4-104 of the Criminal Law Article (access to a firearm by a minor) during fiscal 2025.
