Analysis

Current Law: In Baltimore City, the Class A beer and light wine license authorizes the license holder to sell beer and light wine, at retail, in a sealed package or container. The package or container may not be opened or its contents may not be consumed on the premises where the beer or light wine is sold. The annual license fee is $171.

The Class A BWL license authorizes the license holder to sell beer, wine, and liquor, at retail, in a sealed package or container. The package or container may not be opened or its contents consumed on the license premises. The annual license fee is $2,060.

A holder of a Class A beer and light wine license or a Class A BWL license may sell beer and light wine on the Sundays that fall between Thanksgiving Day and New Year's Day, from 1:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. so long as the license holder has paid, by September 30 of that year, a supplementary license fee of $120 for each Sunday the privilege is to be exercised.

The board must immediately suspend without a hearing the renewal license of an alcoholic beverages license holder that fails to present to the board by October 30 annually a certificate issued by the Director of Finance showing that all personal property taxes due to the city or State are paid.
